

Linda Riley's masterclass - follow-on activity

This masterclass was all about Linda's passion for inclusion and how it is important for everyone! She talked about the history of DIVA, why she put it together and representing trans voices.

One important aspect of Linda's masterclass was the need to make sure everyone felt seen and understood. One way we often see ourselves represented is through role models - people we look up to and admire!

For this follow-on activity, Linda would like you to investigate three LGBT+ role models and write about them below.

Remember, you can 'make a copy' or 'download' this resource so you can edit it yourself from the 'file' menu!

You can include some of the following information:

1. Who they are
2. What they do
3. Why you see them as a role model
4. What impact they might have had on you/the wider LGBT+ community
5. Pictures, videos or even recommendations of their work!

You can send us your role models to info@justlikeus.org.

1. Role Model 1

2. Role Model 2
